The Coming Hoffman Pantagraph of yesterday we find the following of local interest: "The trial, by appeal, of Rev. H. O. Hoffman, upon the charges of immorality, with which nature the public is already aware, will be held at Lincoln on the 25th of September. He will be defended by Rev. R. N. Davies, presiding elder of the Decatur district. Dr. Davies did not consent to do the latter until he conferred with Bishop Warren during a recent visit at Decatur, the Bishop having joined Mr. Hoffman in his request. The Rev. J. P. Dimmitt, pastor of the First M. E. church at Decatur, will represent the Decatur district in the Bishop's cabinet, under Presiding Elder Davies' instructions. Bishop Warren will preside at the conference. Hoffman's trial will occur at the same time and place. Bishop Jesse T. Peck will preside at the trial, so that the regular business of the conference will not be delayed. Dr. Davies and Dr. Aaron Gurney, the latter of Chicago, are regarded as the most eminent legal counselors in the Methodist Episcopal church in this state. Dr. Davies defended Mr. Hoffman at a former trial at Quincy, a few years ago. Dr. Gurney was counsel for Hoffman at the preliminary trial at Bloomington, and he also prosecuted Dr. Thomas, of Chicago, at the latter's trial before the judicial conference held at Terre Haute, Ind."

Dr. Davies was seen this morning by a REPUBLICAN reporter. He says he has been informed by Hoffman to appear for him at the conference as his counsel, but the Doctor says there are good reasons why it may be impossible for him to comply with the request. The whole matter as to the conduct of the trial will not be finally settled until the meeting of the conference at Lincoln in September.

Attempted Burglary.
During Thursday evening an unknown scamp attempted to enter the residence of Rev. Dr. Davies on South Main street, while the members of the Masonic lodge, and the guests of the front door had not been put in its usual hiding place, and when the servant girl, who didn't take in the burglar, went home she failed to find the key. She couldn't enter, and while she was sitting near the dwelling a man on the north side of the house was discovered by Herman Martin trying to break into the house by raising the windows. Herman gave a rescue whoop, and the would-be burglar lit out through the back yard, disappearing suddenly over a rear fence. Mr. Martin escorted the girl, who was then badly frightened, to the lady, and left her there.

From Missouri.
Moses, John A. Lefever and J. N. Madden, of Friends Creek township, who had just returned from a three weeks' trip to Northwestern Missouri, paid us a short call. The first named brought an improved turn near Nevada, Vernon county, to which he will remove. Both are land men, their praises of the country and its productions, among which, they particularly mentioned the splendid fruit, samples of which they brought with them. The peaches they left on our table are certainly finer than any we have seen this year.

Democratic Convention.
A telegram from Clinton gives the information that the Democratic congressional district convention will be held in Decatur, on Tuesday, Sept. 12th. It is also stated that Hon. Adlai Stevenson, of Bloomington, will be the candidate, and will be supported by the Greenbackers of the district. The Democrats declare that Stevenson has got to come out square for Democracy.

Correct.
Hon. Jason Rogers was nominated for state senator for this district by the republican state convention at Lincoln, on Tuesday last. His nomination was a reward of merit for his conduct in the lower house of the last general assembly. He will be elected by a handsome majority, as he deserves to be. -Macou Independent, 12th.

We have received from a friend a copy of the Attica (Ind.) Ledger, which contains an account of the recent defeat of the Attica by the Reds in this city, the score being 5 to 4. The Ledger gives the umpire of the game several sharp clips, but gracefully acknowledges that the Reds were too much for the Hoosiers. It says: "The Attica got whipped, and we are manly enough to say so without hiding behind the worn-out excuse—an unfair umpire."

DRUMM Post, A. R., has been organized at Decatur with 50 members. Shelbyville Union.

AND so; but it should be hastily stated that No. 141 is neither a "Darham," a "Jersey" or "Short Horn" organization. It is simply a "Drum Post," and will grow rapidly in membership as the weeks go by. The new badges will be presented to the comrades at the meeting to be held this evening.

IT has been incorrectly stated by a Decatur paper that Rev. W. H. Scott, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons, is a Baptist minister. He is a minister, it is true, but he preaches the Methodist doctrine. He is pastor of a Methodist church at Salem. We learn that it is his desire to be transferred to the Illinois Conference, and it may be that his wishes will be gratified.

LAST evening a man was landed in the city coaler on a charge of drunkenness. He would not give his name, but he claimed to be a deserter from the regular army, and said he would explain everything this (Saturday) evening. A standing reward of $50 is offered by the government for the arrest of all deserters. Officer Mason made the arrest in this case.

The alarm of fire sounded last evening before dark, was caused by an incipient fire in a stable in the rear of Mr. Amos Cooklin's residence on North Jackson street. A little fire in the loft was burned, but the Neptune boys arrived in time to smother the flames and prevent any serious damage. It is supposed some boys with matches set the hay on fire accidentally.

The Washburn mail train from the east did not arrive in Decatur until 12 o'clock today. The delay was "accidental." Last night a freight train broke in two at Salomon and the mail train from the east this morning ran into the broken section, making something of a wreck and blocking the track, delaying trains for about eight hours.

Thursday, Aug. 24—10 a. m.—"Agricultural Pains." Hon. H. D. Peters, Monticello, Ill. "Dairy Farming." Prof. Geo. E. Morrow, Dean Ill. Agricultural College. "Cattle Raising." Charles F. Mills, Springfield, Ill.

It is expected that many farmers and stock breeders outside of the district will be in Decatur to attend this important meeting.

Decatur at Casner.
Yesterday afternoon Captain Frank Cassell's William Street Nine, of this city, and Dr. Dawson's Nine met on the diamond at Casner Station and tortured a base ball for three hours and a half, the game being witnessed by the largest and most enthusiastic crowd that has ever assembled in that village. The umpire was Charles W. Hartley, of Decatur. The contest was an easy victory for our boys by the following score by innings:

Decatur,..... 6 2 0 1 0 2 3 10 3—27
Casner,..... 1 3 2 0 0 2 1 0 0—9

The Decatur visitors desire the Republicans to return their thanks to Dr. Dawson for kindly courtesies extended.

ONE DOLLAR TO PEORIA.
The Excursion To-Morrow—Go with the Crowd.

All people wishing a pleasant excursion and a day of relaxation and sight-seeing, are again notified that a cheap excursion train of numerous comfortable coaches will be run from Decatur to Peoria, over the Peoria, Decatur & Evansville road to-morrow, (Sunday), Aug. 13th. The fare for the round trip will be $1.00. The train will be in charge of the popular managers, Conductors Bell and Spens, who will see to it that every passenger is made comfortable while on the train. The train will leave the Union depot at 8:32 a. m., and returning will leave Peoria at 6 p. m. Peoria is a booming city, and there are plenty of objects of interest there for sight-seers. A new opera house has been erected, and the lake and parks offer the usual attractions with which veteran excursionists are familiar.

JACK LITTLE, of the Washburn, met with a painful accident while going east on a passenger train last night. While arranging a ball cord Jack jerked it smartly and the iron end of it struck the cap of one of his knees, injuring it so severely that Jack may become a cripple.

PANA, ILL., Aug. 11, 1892.
To the Captain of the Decatur Reds:
We will come to your city and play your nine a social game and play our own nine if you will play your own nine, no bet being allowed on the game, just doing this it will make a better feeling between the two places. We to have half the gate money. Let me hear from you. You may name the umpire.

Yours, etc., R. N. FORBES.

The letter has been placed under the table, where it properly belongs, and it will stay there. The Reds don't care to have anything more to do with the Pana pirates.

Dr. and Mrs. O. F. Parker and daughter, Miss Minnie, are expected to arrive home from their eastern pleasure trip, during the latter part of the coming week.

Rev. H. W. Trembloss departed this morning for Mount Chapel, south of Taylorville, where he will hold quarterly meeting to-morrow for Elder Fields.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Sibley arrived in Decatur last evening, after a protracted stay of three weeks in the east. While at Brooklyn, Conn., they were the guests of the Doctor's brother, Preston Sibley, sheriff and jailor of the county. It was Doctor Sibley's first visit to his old home for a period of 33 years, and was richly enjoyed by him. His aged mother and sisters reside at Brooklyn. Before returning home the Doctor and his wife visited Boston, New York, Coney Island, and other places of interest. All the forenoon the Doctor has been busily engaged in answering questions propounded by friends, who are pleased to see him back again well and hearty, and to hear him talk about his experience way down east.

MR. DAY, one of the operators in the Western Union Telegraph office, has a black dog named "Conolly," that is certainly one of the best trained canines in or outside of a circus. He will do anything his owner tells him to do without even a move of a finger or hand.

WHOMEVER wrote the following has a level head. Just a few words, girls, and don't get mad. Go slow on getting acquainted with every stranger that stops a day in town. Men are on the lookout for young women to flirt with. Don't try to be first to catch a commercial traveler or receive his company at your homes, or to go with him to social gatherings. This class of men make fun of you to your friends. Don't snub the young men you know to gain the momentary affections of strangers. It never pays. You mean it all right, but an unjust public is sure to hint many wicked things about you. Many young ladies fall out of notice, socially, by being ruled by a desire to flirt with strangers. Take the advice we offer and see how much happier you will be when you settle down in homes of your own.

DIED.
In Mazon, on August 10th, 1892, of inflammation of the bowels, Nora, daughter of W. R. Huff, aged two years.

The funeral took place on the 10th, at four o'clock.

At the family residence on South Broadway, on Friday morning, August 11th, of cholera infantum, Lizzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Abbott, aged six weeks.

The funeral took place this afternoon. The remains were taken to Mt. Gilead Cemetery for interment.
